

Program Details: Chamberlain Award

Chamberlain Award is a fully sponsored artist residency and $10,000 prize to support an artist working in the social practice discipline. This award supports artists employing non-traditional media to creatively engage with social concerns of the day.

Application Fee

- Early Bird (April 1–May 9): $15
- Regular (May 10–June 6): $25

Program Goals

- To invest in individuals at the cutting edge of the social practice field, whose artwork creates dialogue and social change.
- To support artists to explore and experiment in order to take their work to the next level.
- To build a nurturing and dynamic community of local, national, and international artists and thinkers.
- To encourage artists to develop ideas and work within the context of the Marin Headlands, a part of Golden Gate National Recreation Area.
- To bring national and international artists to the Bay Area to engage and have cross-cultural exchange with local artists and audiences.

Eligibility

- Artists not currently enrolled in an academic program at the time requested residency would take place. Eligibility of artists enrolled in PhD programs will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Alumni of Headlands' Artists Programs are eligible to apply for the Chamberlain Award, with the exception of previous recipients of Alumni New Works, Chamberlain, Chiaro, or Tournesol Awards.
- Must be able to speak basic English.

Selection Criteria

- Merit of past work that exemplifies and contributes to conversations about socially engaged, non-traditional, and interactive media to include:
 - Non-studio based art
 - Art that takes place in public spaces
 - Art that engages viewers in interactive and participatory modes
 - Art that recognizes social and ethnic diversity
 - Art that reflects on human lives
- Readiness to engage with and benefit from the residency experience at Headlands (see program goals).
- Potential to develop creative practice and impact the community at Headlands and beyond.

Selection Process

- Headlands staff reviews applications to ensure completion and eligibility.
- Submissions are reviewed by a jury of knowledgeable and esteemed artists and arts professionals.
- The jury evaluates each artist's materials and selects finalists.
- Finalists are invited to present their work in a 20-minute Zoom interview to determine the final award selection.

Application Materials

A full application includes the following:

- Resume or curriculum vitae
- Letter of interest, outlining your specific interest in working at Headlands and how program participation will affect your practice
- List of three references and email addresses; please note, we do not want letters of reference
- Documentation of recent work (see specifications below for guidelines according to discipline)

Artist collaboratives should apply together by submitting ONE application per group, specifying the number of individuals on the application form. For live-in Artists in Residence, Headlands can accommodate no more than three total artists in a collaborative group.*

Documentation

Applicants may submit up to 12 work samples, which can be a combination of media including images, video, audio, or other media files appropriate to convey your practice.

If including audio or video samples, please adhere to the following limits:

- Audio Samples: You may submit up to 30 minutes of audio.
- Video Samples: You may submit up to 30 minutes of video. Because of Slideroom's limited capacity, video links can be listed on a PDF and uploaded in the media section—please remember to include any necessary passwords.

Note: You have 12 media uploads (which can include one type, or a combination of jpegs, video, and audio samples). The other 3 available uploads are for submitting your Statement of Interest, curriculum vitae, and optional image index (PDF).
